

MEDIUMSHIP READINGS

A Mediumship reading is most suitable for those who would like to make a connection with a loved one who has died. This in itself can sound a little scary, but often has the effect of assisting the grief process, giving a feel of peace and an inner sense of knowing we have not been left behind and all is OK.

“Dear Karen, I just wanted to thank you for reconnecting me with my parents and in particular my father. I can't tell you how much it meant to me, just to know that he is still with me”

You should be given evidence that the medium is talking to who they say they are. This may include names, places, dates, personality, items, memories or other lifetime events. They should then give you a message which should be relevant to current events or questions.

You should not have to take along anything to a mediumship reading apart from an open mind. Remember a specific person or even a connection cannot be guaranteed. Your medium should be honest with you, and you with the medium. If you understand something say yes, if not tell them!

“Just to say Thank you for the reading it was great! I felt calmer and better able to think and deal with things since. I also wanted to say to you that before I came to you I did send out a prayer, which you validated during the reading”
